The CEO Jul 15 2021 Douglas Aspine was a cold, calculating bastard who lusted for the riches and power that came with being a public company CEO. He was forty-five and running out of time when fate dealt him an unexpected opportunity. The company was old and staid, but it was underperforming, and Aspine was determined to turn it around no matter who he had to crush or how many toes he had to stand on. Soon he was at war with the company's employees, unions, suppliers, financiers, and co-directors, but nothing was going to stop him. Not his chairman, not his wife, not his mistress, not the anonymous death threats, and definitely not the media. He could almost taste the glory, the riches, and peer recognition he'd craved for so long, but would those who he'd hurt so badly let him enjoy his ill-gotten gains? He knew he had countless detractors and enemies who he contemptuously labeled "losers" and paid them no heed. Would this prove to be a miscalculation of monumental proportions?

The Lust for Love Dec 28 2019 EXTRA Extra, read all about her in "The Lust for Love", a newly penned relationship book by Extra from "For the Love of Ray J 2" on VH1 in which she opens up her heart and mind to reader's and gives her opinions on dating, lust, and love. Because she has experienced so much heartbreak, distress, and disappointment with relationships she offers up advice on how to deal with these emotions and how to prevent from feeling them again. Beginning with the introduction, Extra shows her softer side by explaining how she came to know and recognize love for the first time and the mistake that she made from the beginning. As the book progresses the chapters give details about Extra's love life, her sex life, and her single life. With each chapter she shows her intellect and deep feelings about every aspect of relationships. By the last chapter the reader will know "What men want", "What women want", what it means to be "Just Friends", how to deal with the "Fear of Love" and the "Fear of Rejection". The reader will also discover "What men look for" in a companion and "What it means to be a woman". Extra emphasizes that we need to "Change the dating game" and teaches us what "To say or not to say" when it comes to telling "Is your past present". The "Lust for Love" over all is a hot and steamy read that will have reader's wanting extra Extra.

Lust for Blood Jun 13 2021 "Biting nonfiction about the creatures readers have found irresistible ever since Bram Stoker's Dracula. Authoritative, chilling, and complete, Lust for Blood is a hypnotic, popularly written history of vampires from their most ancient predations all over the world, up to and including 20th-century cases in America and in Europe. Revealing the various forms of vampires and their character, it also spells out the traditional methods men and women have used to protect themselves against the creatures of the night and how both clergy and laity have worked to destroy them. This book surveys not only the famous cases such as that of Countess Báthory, the 'Vampire Lady of the Carpathians', but details even more gripping tales of the undead, and interviews actual modern American vampires--people obsessed by their own lust for blood." --Back cover.

A Lust for Virtue Oct 30 2022 As a young prince, Louis XIV paid little attention to virtue or sin, but he later became committed to imprisoning blasphemers and prostitutes. Using police and prison archives, administrative correspondence, memoirs and letters, this volume describes the formation of Louis's narrow conscience.

Lust* May 13 2021 Accessibly written, this interdisciplinary book reviews theory and research on the characteristics of sexual desire, the individual physical and mental factors that influence the experience of sexual desire (hormones, age, gender, beliefs, mood), the various partner characteristics that incite sexual desire (attractiveness) and the association between sexual desire and interpersonal, relational events and experiences (romantic love). The book concludes with an examination of the personal, interpersonal and societal implications of sexual desire. Throughout, the authors draw on findings from their own body of research on sexual and romantic attraction, as well as on an extensive review of the relevant social, behavioural and medical science

Seven Deadly Sins* Feb 07 2021 Whereas the other six deadly sins offer a gratification that one must fight to deny, Lust originates with agony, doubt, and fear of rejection. But Lust can take many forms; it's hard to tell whether the craving will be for love, control, or money. One thing is certain: Lust can both frustrate and delight. Twenty-one authors. Twenty-one stories. One theme: Lust. This is the final volume of our Seven Deadly Sins series. No Strings by Teresa Bassett: All boys are the same, aren't they? Only after one thing. Linda's friend Gina wants to put the theory to the test. Their Eyes on Me by Mae Baum: New wing girl of the most popular girl in school, all eyes are now on Lexi Hoffman and she wants to keep them there. The Lovers' Kiss by Susan Conner: Kissing on stage is no big deal. Those feelings are just pretend. Until Tony. Adhira can't get her recent leading man out of her head. Is it love, or is it lust? The Pickle Polisher by Matthew Dewar: George isn't addicted to polishing his pickle. He just enjoys it. A lot. Angel of Carnage by Kyra Dusk: Blood. Power. Death. Moth is an expert on dark desires. Dragon's Flame by Shauna Ivory Evans: What's more terrifying-facing a fire breathing dragon or confessing your feelings to the girl you love? Jeremiad by J. Grabarek: Mia's path before Jeremy: college. Mia and Jeremy together: poetry, stealing, and pregnancy. Mia's path after Jeremy: no idea. Living Next Door to Amy by Sarah Hegerty: His best friend lives next door to the hottest girl in his universe, but she doesn't know he exists. Until a bet changes everything. Seven Minutes by Sara Hills: When you're sixteen, overweight, and never been kissed, is a faceless boy in a dark closet the best you can hope for? Fire and Starlight Girl by Sonora Hills: Best friends are forever. But when sixteen-year-old Cassie discovers her feelings run much deeper, will her friendship with Ella survive? I Can Do This All Day by Chris Kennedy: Frank knows what he wants, but the girl of his dreams is just out of reach and catching her could kill him! Nuitmayer by Tonia Markou: When Nathaniel goes to France to find answers regarding the legacy his grandfather left him, he gets more than he bargained for. Dottie's Gift by C. P. Mulé Lust is a fickle beast, they say. For the empath, Jimmy Glover, that should be taken literally. Can he protect those he cares about? Stepping Over the Line by Sean O'Brian: You stand to inherit a tiny kingdom, but your enemy is approaching with a vast army. Only a fool would try to resist. The Seventh Life by Yvette O'Kay: The want, the bone deep need for power has thrummed through her veins for centuries and she has the patience to obtain what she desires. Oren by Cherish D. Smith: Two boys want her. One owns her heart. The other, her body. But it's up to Rowena to own her feelings and the risks that come with them. Band Nerd by K.T. Stephens: How many ways can a creative genius make a fool of himself with the opposite sex? Apparently, the possibilities are endless. Nina and the Raging Hormone Buffet by Elle Turpitt: For those like Nina, who feed on desire, a high school is the perfect place to be. A high school party is even better. Blue Magic Blues by Robert Walton: Are you desperate enough to trust your love life to an alcoholic wizard? What could go wrong? Wolveswood by Daniel I. Weaver: Things of the Wolveswood have a way of finding their way back home, even if they never knew they were lost. Witches and Kings by Mari L. Yates: A lust for power is a dangerous thing. When her plan to marry the king fails, will Nostrea trade her magic for a pair of wings, or lose her own life while trying?

Lust for Fame Nov 18 2021 The first book on Booth's ten tumultuous years on the stage, with a wealth of rare period illustrations reproduced with special techniques yielding results of better quality than the originals. The book evaluates his performances through newspaper reviews and the recorded opinions of his contemporaries; it also separates Booth the actor from Booth the assassin. Previously unpublished letters are included, some in facsimile. John Wilkes' famous brother Edwin was not necessarily the leading actor of his era: this book indicates why John Wilkes Booth might claim that distinction. One of the appendices is an exhaustive chronology of all his performances, and all fellow cast members.

Lust for Enlightenment Mar 11 2021 Over the centuries, Buddhism has responded to sexuality in a variety of fascinating ways, sometimes, suppressing the sexual urge, sometimes sublimating it, sometimes cultivating it, and, on the highest levels, transforming it. This book reveals how Buddhists, beginning with Shakyamuni Buddha himself, relate to the "inner fire" that drives humankind. Included are chapters on the Buddha's love life before his enlightenment and his later relationships with women, the tantric approach to sex among Buddhists of ancient India, Tibet, China, and Japan; Zen in the art of love; and a positive discussion of women and Buddhism.

Having a Lust for Life May 25 2022 Having a Lust for Life is a primer for individuals and couples who yearn for more variety in their expressions of love and romance than the same old tired movie and dinner date. Romance should not be limited to, or solely considered, a time spent seeking acceptance and love by the opposite sex. Author Charlotte Turnquist explores romance as an ephemeral attitude influencing every aspect of day-to-day life. Having a Lust for Life offers a broad range of activities aimed at enlivening and enriching the sentimental time spent alone or with loved ones. Everyone can benefit from living a fully romantic life. By recognizing and changing stagnant and unimaginative patterns of behavior, romance can be cultivated by taking the initiative and responsibility to enrich life with inventiveness, vision, creativity, and resourcefulness.

Two Faces of Love Sep 16 2021 This is a new release of the original 1944 edition.

Lust for Power Apr 11 2021 This book is a study of the misuse of power, which has become the chief social problem of our time. The usual attitude towards will to power is that it is a source of evil and should be held in check as much as possible. There is also the contrary attitude that will to power is a natural impulse that is indispensable for a good life. Our judgment in this matter depends upon whether it is we who seek power, or someone else. There is a natural love of power for a good end. There is also an unnatural lust for power that makes the exercise of power an end in itself. This lust is the corruption of love by a radical distemper in the human soul. It cannot be explained in terms of the quest for security, freedom, prosperity, or any other rational good. It is not caused, either by biological traits or by any particular environment. It is generated by man's despair with his destiny, by the "power of death" and the anxious guilt that prevail in human existence. Lust for Power is primarily a description of the process by which love of power is changed into lust for power, with special emphasis on the new power available in our technological society and upon the despair evoked by "the modern world." In the last chapter, faith and culture are presented as the double antidote to lust and as the conditions of a life at once natural and good.

More Book Lust Apr 23 2022 The response to Nancy Pearl's surprise bestseller Book Lust was astounding: the Seattle librarian even became the model for the now-famous Librarian Action Figure. Readers everywhere welcomed Pearl's encyclopedic but discerning filter on books worth reading, and her Rule of 50 (give a book 50 pages before deciding whether to continue; but readers over 50 must read the same number of pages as their age) became a standard MO.

Lust for Light Feb 19 2022 Whether it glows lustrously from neon, emanates purely from LEDs or radiates with intensity from lasers, this elemental medium, light, fascinates artists and viewers alike. Lust for Light selects works by artists who have used light as a primary or catalyzing agent in the featured pieces. Taking a dynamic approach in its curation, the book features the use of illumination in more traditional gallery forms as well as in three dimensional and large-scale installation pieces. Many of the featured artists are skilled fabricators who have been honing their light-inspired works for years, while others have made stunning pieces through collaborations and daring forays, cross-pollinating their artistic visions with new technologies in the process. Featured artists include Yayoi Kusama, Ivan Navarro, Jennifer Steinkamp, Laddie John Dill, Joanie Lemercier, Massimo Uberti, Barry Underwood, Miguel Chevalier, James Clar, Liz West and more.

Lust for Love Jan 09 2021 An unlikely pair of voices-the world's most recognizable beauty icon and "America's rabbi"-comes together to diagnose how meaningful, passionate sex is on the decline in Western culture, and what is necessary to save it. Sex is dying in America. Inundated with sex and starved for it, obsessed with it yet clueless about it, we are slowly forgetting how to make love. The crisis of modern sexuality is seen in high divorce rates, in the degradation of sexuality through pornography, and tasteless displays of empty, counterfeit erotica. Most of all, it's seen in sexless marriages and platonic relationships where cybersex has become more addictive than the real thing. Sex has become so trivialized, coarsened, and vulgarized that couples no longer feel its pull. The once powerful and irresistible magnetism of sex is being diluted and drained. The authors propose replacing the 1960s' sexual revolution with a new sensual revolution, a rediscovery of intimacy that encourages and ennobles human relationships, elevates healthy lust, and gets us from looking up from the glowing screens of our smartphones to the people around us, most especially the people we love the most. Lust for Love embraces the idea that what our most important relationships need most is lust. It is necessary to rediscover what's sexy again, how to bring back romance, and to understand that in addition to love, we need lust to repair our unfulfilling sex lives and broken relationships. Lust for Love proposes a return to what lovemaking was always meant to be: a desire to know and experience another person in the deepest possible way.

Lust For Life Nov 30 2022 Lust for Life is the classic fictional re-telling of the incredible life of Vincent Van Gogh. "Vincent is not dead. He will never die. His love, his genius, the great beauty he has created will go on forever, enriching the world... He was a colossus... a great painter... a great philosopher... a martyr to his love of art. " Walking down the streets of Paris the young Vincent Van Gogh didn't feel like he belonged. Battling poverty, repeated heartbreak and familial obligation, Van Gogh was a man plagued by his own creative urge but with no outlet to express it. Until the day he picked up a paintbrush. Written with raw insight and emotion, follow the artist through his tormented life, struggling against critical discouragement and mental turmoil and bare witness to his creative journey from a struggling artist to one of the world's most celebrated artists.

A Lust for Lead Oct 06 2020 The American West, 1887. Six years ago, the legendary gunfighter Shane Ennis laid down his guns and swore never to shoot again. Now the Fastest Guns want him back and they won't take no for an answer. In the accursed town of Covenant, far out in the wasteland, a tournament is being held. Sixteen of the best of a new generation of gunfighters have gathered to fight to the death for the Fastest Guns' approval. But the tournament is not all that it seems. Dark forces are plotting behind the scenes and an evil power lies in wait, patiently biding its time until the clock strikes the Gunfighter's Hour.

A Lust for Window Sills Jan 01 2023 A brilliant, offbeat celebration of the great hodgepodge of British buildings' Thomas Marks, Sunday Telegraph From soaring Victorian railway stations to Edwardian terraces, from Perpendicular churches to Strawberry Hill, Britain has an architecture unrivalled in fertility, invention and heart-stopping beauty. And with some very strong feelings about window sills, Harry Mount could not be better qualified to survey it. Meandering through garden suburbs and cathedral closes, discovering Moghul palaces in Gloucestershire and Egyptian sphinxes in Islington, A Lust for Window Sills is rich with anecdote, allusion and such inspired digressions as where to find the ugliest gargoyles and a liquid history of watering holes from gin palaces to the Rovers Return.
